INTRC

These instructions are compiled to provide essential practice for students who already have a basic knowledge of English and specializing in Management of the Hotel, Resort and Tourist Service, the Hospitality Industry & Tourism.

These tasks are to change the attitudes of both teachers and students to classroom activities. The teacher who is worried that students will be missing something important will find included in the activities which develop intensive and extensive reading skills, writing in a variety of styles, and oral tasks involving varying degrees of subtlety. The teacher who brings these tasks into the study is not depriving the students of language practice, but is, instead, providing a richer context for such practice.

When teachers use texts for reading they are often too concerned with what was written at the expense of how. Reading in any language is an affective as well as a cognitive process. The teacher's role is not that of corrector or judge, but rather that of enabler. The teacher assists with language, errors, but should not replace the student's perceptions with his or her own.

Each unit contains the following:

- reading;
- lexical exercises;
- a series of assignments that mirror real-life activities.

Portugal and Madeira.

If France is elegant, Spain is passionate and Italy is romantic, then what is Portugal, and in particular, the Algarve? To us, it is simply very, very pleasant and just perfect for those seeking high temperatures and world-class beaches, with the added advantage of friendly and, in the main, English-speaking locals. Whilst the exclusive Vale do Lobo and Quinta do Lago areas are dotted with luxurious private villas, tennis clubs and some of the best golf courses in the world, neither suffers from the rather intense over-development that has spoilt many parts of the Algarve. And, anyway, there is always the wild beauty of the Ria Formosa Estuary to ensure one retains one’s sense of place, not to mention reality! If you want to spend some time exploring Portugal’s capital city of Lisbon please refer to us for our selection of recommended hotels.

Portugal and Madeira. When to Go.

The Algarve and Madeira enjoy golf and tennis-friendly temperatures even during the winter months. From April to October is the warmest time although, if you like sea-bathing, remember that they are in the Atlantic and not the Mediterranean – temperatures can be quite a bit lower. If you choose to visit the Algarve in “off-season”, golf is probably the main attraction. You can expect to be joined by a lot of like-minded enthusiasts – the tourist board coined the phrase “Sportugal” for good reason! Peak visitor months to Madeira are actually December to April.

Portugal and Madeira. Observations and Suggestions.

Why not to combine a visit to the glamorous beaches of the Algarve with a week appreciating the quieter charms of Madeira? Air Portugal fly every Saturday between Faro and Funchal (the trip takes about two hours). We would be delighted to arrange a tailor-made itinerary.

Those who have struggled with the late eating hours in Spain will be pleased to know that a holiday in Portugal will not require a complete rescheduling of your dining habits. Meal times are more in keeping with our own and you'll be even happier to know that the cuisine is excellent.

Portugal. Hotel Quinta Do Lago. Algarve

Unquestionably the Algarve's most stylish hotel and enjoying an elevated location overlooking the saltwater lagoons and pine forests of the Ria Formosa nature sanctuary. The Hotel Quinta Do Lago's modern design and carefully-landscaped gardens contrast dramatically with the wildness of its surrounding countryside and ensure you leave with a strong sense of the region's beauty. Its beach, accessed by a wooden footbridge across the adjacent bird-filled estuary, is quite spectacular. It takes about 10 minutes to walk there from the hotel's central facilities, but once there you are greeted by miles of golden sands with complimentary loungers, shading umbrellas and thirst-quenching drinks readily available.

The independent beach restaurant and bar is a popular and attractive venue for lunches. The hotel's 132 guestrooms and 9 suites are spacious, airy and pastel-coloured, the ceramic tiles in their bathrooms complementing their Portuguese setting. In-room facilities include air-conditioning, televisions and minibars, as well as balconies for private breakfasts – those with views of the golf course receiving the sun in the mornings, and those overlooking the gardens receiving in the afternoons. Lavish buffet breakfasts, alfresco barbecue lunches and elegant dinners, are daily events in the Navegadores Restaurant, with its cool interior and poolside terrace. Authentic Italian cuisine is also served each evening in the elegant surroundings of the Ca d'Oro Restaurant, with the Laguna Bar a pleasant venue for sociable drinks. A popular nightclub is just 5 minutes away. Recreational facilities here are impressive.

There's an outdoor pool, a children's pool, two tennis courts and windsurfing, sailing and canoeing available from the watersports centre. When the weather is a little cooler, the stylish Health Club, with its heated indoor pool, sauna, gymnasium and massage facilities, may be a more popular option. Two golf courses, offering preferential rates and tee times, lie within the hotel's estate – the 36-hole Quinta Do Lago course and the Pinheiros Altos, an 18-hole, par 71 championship course. In addition, hotel guests receive preferential treatment at the championship Vila Sol course (host to the 1993 Portuguese Open), as well as the courses at Vilamoura.

A member of the Leading Hotels of the World, the Hotel Quinta Do Lago is owned by Orient-Express Hotels and is highly-recommended.

Portugal. Le Meridien Dona Filipa. Algarve.

This friendly, intrinsically Portuguese hotel is far more than just another golfing resort. Certainly, it is only hotel guests who can join the members on the San Lorenzo course, voted in 1995 “Golf World” as the finest in Portugal and number 2 in Europe). Reduced green fees, as well as on other courses such as Vale do Lobo, Quinta do Lago and Vilamoura are big attractions. Yet the hotel is also close to a beautiful white sand beach, which provides guests with loungers, towels and soft drinks. A stylish pool with adjacent sunbathing terrace, is an agreeable alternative to the golf course, whilst floodlit tennis, horse-riding, waterskiing and sailing are possibilities. The main dining area for breakfasts and Portuguese-style evening meals is the Dom Duarte Restaurant, the tables on the outside terrace are undoubtedly the most popular. Alternatively, an adjacent Grill Room offers meat dishes or aquarium-selected seafood cooked to order at the table. Lunch is a poolside affair at the Primavera Restaurant’s alfresco barbecue area during the summer months. Spacious rooms and suites feature air-conditioning, televisions, minibars, marble bathrooms and balconies with views of either the sea, gardens or golf course with 24-hour room service available. The only hotel in the exclusive Vale do Lobo area, with its fashionable bars, nightclubs and restaurants.

Portugal. Hotel Vila Vita Parc. Algarve.

Having decided upon the Algarve as his ideal holiday choice, Dr. Reinfreid Pohl built a second home here some twenty years ago. From this early beginning developed the idea of Hotel Vila Vita Parc, a luxurious leisure complex devoted to combining the best that both nature and man can provide. Some 20 minutes drive west of Albufiera and set amidst 20 hectares of undulating terrain, and looking the Atlantic Ocean, Vila Vita Parc at Armacao de Pera boasts an abundance of leisure facilities, catering for all the family. There are five tennis courts, a squash hall, mini golf, a heated indoor and outdoor pool, two outdoor pools and two jacuzzis. The health club boasts a steam-bath, solarium, sauna and gym, whilst the truly-stressed-out can take advantage of the Vital Centre – a medically supervised retreat offering regeneration cures, acupuncture and oxygen-ozone therapy. Watersports from two peaceful sandy beaches are available, whilst golfing facilities include varying range and nine-hole pitch and putt course. Five championship courses are within easy reach for the serious golfer. Children too are spoilt for choice with an adventure playground and 2 separate swimming pools at their disposal. Five restaurants and seven bars, including the nightclub, are dotted throughout the resort, its central hub the impressive Clubhouse with panoramic views of the ocean. The luxury accommodation, with the elegance of Portuguese and Moorish architecture reflected in its design, is equipped to the highest standards of comfort. The hotel has a high percentage of German clientele and guests here have a choice of suites, junior suites and deluxe double rooms spread between a five-star hotel and an elegant and more intimate detached residence overlooking a small beach. Homely touches, such as dried flower arrangements and “objets d'art”, are courtesy of Dr. Pohl's wife, Anneliese and confirmation that, whilst the Vila Vita Parc is an impressive leisure resort, it is still privately-owned. The hotel is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World.

Portugal. Sheraton Algarve. Algarve.

Enjoying a splendid clifftop location overlooking the beautiful beach of Praia da Falesia, the Sheraton Algarve is a deluxe 215-roomed resort belonging to the ITT Sheraton Luxury Collection. A charming reflection of Portugal’s Arabic heritage, the hotel’s low-rise, village-style exterior combines whitewashed walls and red tiled roofs with shrub-lined pathways and strategically placed fountains. Marble floors, graceful archways and elegant pillars distinguish the airy interiors of the public rooms.

This delightful Portuguese theme continues throughout the hotel’s luxury accommodation, each spacious rooms and suite boasting air-conditioning, satellite TV’s, minibars and sun terraces with sea, land or pine views. Guests can choose between casual or gourmet meals in a variety of appealing venues – summertime snacks at the poolside bar or Beach Club, international cuisine in the Alem-Mar and Corde Café. Live entertainment is a nightly feature of the Portulano Club and the Jardim Colonial cocktail bar.

Leisure facilities here are also first-class. Many guests seek nothing more than to relax on the white-sand beach, accessible by elevator or stairs, taking occasional advantage of watersports that include windsurfing, waterskiing and catamaran sailing – local charges apply. Floodlit tennis and a health club with gymnasium, jacuzzi and sauna are also available on site, with an indoor and outdoor pool catering for winter and summer visits. The Porto Pirata is a supervised entertainment and dining programme catering for children between 6months-12years during April to October – prices on request. Golfers will also enjoy the resort's 9-hole course (the famous Devil's Parlour hole necessitates a 180-metre drive to clear the cliffs), whilst those keen to improve their skills can take full advantage of the on-site Golf Academy. The three 18-hole courses of Vilamoura are also just 10 minutes from the hotel, with Quinta do Lago, Vila Sol and Pinheiros Altos just 30 minutes away. A deluxe international resort with a truly memorable location.

Portugal. Reid’s Palace. Madeira.

Founded by Scotsman, William Reid, this classic hotel has established itself as one of the finest in Europe. Enjoying the ambience of a private country mansion, it nestles amidst ten acres of flower-filled gardens on a clifftop overlooking the indigo waters of the Atlantic Ocean. All 168 rooms and suites are appealing blends of comfort and style, with facilities that include air-conditioning, marble bathrooms and sitting areas opening out onto private balconies. To ensure quiet stays as well as breathtaking sea views, most of the accommodation faces south. The hotel’s sun terraces and exotic gardens provide plenty of opportunities for rest and relaxation, yet there is also a wide variety of recreational facilities on hand, including two heated saltwater pools and a refreshing sea-level pool, tennis courts, aerobics classes, windsurfing, sailing, waterskiing, snorkeling, scuba-diving, horse-riding, billiards, sauna and massages. Twice-weekly helicopter trips operate during certain times of the year to the beaches of the island of Porto-Santo, just 20 minutes flying time away. Reduced green fees are available on two nearby golf courses, Palheiro Golf and Santo da Serra, whilst excursions include guided walks along the island’s terraced “levadas”, jeep safaris, sailing boat trips and big game fishing. Funchal – its shops, gardens, casinos and museums – is within easy walking distance. Younger visitors can take full advantage of the supervised games, activities, watersports lessons and excursions of the “Fun at Reid’s” and “Reid’s School Breaks for Teenagers” programmes operating at Christmas, Easter and between June and September. The hotel also offers quite a range of dining options and is renowned for its high standards of service. Dinners are usually served in the Main Dining Room (dark suit required) whilst the hotel’s exclusive gourmet restaurant “Les Faunes” is available for those with something special to celebrate, even if it is just the best in life! For informal meals, the Trattoria Villa Cliff serves Italian specialities, whilst traditional afternoon tea is served on the terrace overlooking the sea. A member of The Leading Hotels of the World. Owned by Orient-Express Hotels.

Portugal. Cliff Bay Resort. Madeira.

The first 5-star hotel to open in Madeira for 17 years, the Cliff Bay Resort enjoys a spectacular setting on a promontory overlooking the Atlantic Ocean and the Bay of Funchal. Its outstanding feature is its seawater lagoon-pool, built on an oversized platform at ocean level – the perfect spot for a little breeze-cooled sunbathing. Indeed, sports enthusiasts of all ages are well and truly catered for here. Additional facilities include a heated freshwater indoor\outdoor pool, tennis and squash courts, aerobics classes and a Health Club offering a gymnasium, steam-room and sauna, as well as special treatments such as massage, reflexology and aromatherapy. Scuba-diving, waterskiing, horse-riding and fishing trips can also be readily arranged.

Reduced green fees and a courtesy shuttle bus ensure that play on two nearby 18-hole golf courses is particularly appealing, whilst a complimentary children's activity programme should keep everybody happy. The dining facilities are equally impressive, with most venues offering inside tables or outside terraces. Guests can enjoy a la carte or buffet breakfasts and dinners in the Rose Garden, light lunches or snacks at the Cactus Bar beside the pool or buffet and barbecue lunches at the Blue Lagoon. Gourmet Italian cuisine is available each evening in the ocean-view Il Gallon d'Oro with highly recommended Italian classics. Although the bar-seated nightclubs of Funchal are less than 5 minutes drive away by complimentary shuttle service, the resort also offers a sophisticated cocktail bar for sociable drinks and live entertainment each evening in Le Cliff Bar. The spacious rooms and suites all have sitting areas, marble bathrooms and private balconies with views of the ocean or bay – only 12 have a view of the gardens. In-room facilities include televisions, minibars and air-conditioning. Connecting rooms are available for families. The Cliff Bay Resort is an Inter-Continental Global Partner Resort and only welcomed its first guests in September 1994. Like its far more established neighbour, it targets a discerning and sophisticated clientele, yet the resort manages to reflect a casual and sporting ambience that some visitors will find more their style.

Portugal. Lisbon and Sintra.

Whilst Lisbon may lack the glamour of more fashion-conscious capitals, it boasts a faded elegance and grandeur that may well remain longer in the memory. A visit here is less a hectic round of sightseeing and shopping, more a gradual absorption of the sights and sounds of traditional Portugal. Exploration should begin with a leisurely coffee at one of the inviting art deco cafes in Rossio square, before making your way to Alfama. Try and schedule an afternoon visit to the 16th-century Hieronymite Monastery and, as the Torre de Belem and the Monument to the Discoveries are conveniently close by, the tram ride is well worth the effort. After dark, head straight for the Bairro Alto quarter, notable for its fado bars, restaurants and nightclubs. Indeed, the city boasts a host of interesting buildings – as well as leafy parks and attractive squares, grand boulevards and tempting shops. Just 40 minutes drive away, in the cool mountainous region to the west of Lisbon, lies the picturesque old Moorish town of Sintra, described by Lord Byron as “glorious Eden”. Pleasant strolls along winding paths, relaxing rides in horse-drawn carriages and leisurely tours of exotic parks are what this picturesque town is all about.
